Ulysses Adventures Goes on Stage

SS Peter & Paul Creche, Nursery and primary School pupils on stage for Ulysses Adventures

As part of celebration marking the end of school academic session, The SS Peter and Paul Creche, Nursery and Primary School pupils Ikate Elegushi Lekki brought on stage Ulysses' adventures, an ancient Greek poem.

According to the management of the school, the beginning of 2015-2016 school year, have seen all classes engaged in the story reading activity, led by their teachers. The main purpose of this activity has been to stimulate the children's imagination, a vivid talent at their age, which needs to be exercised and engaged.

The Primary 6 Class enjoyed the adventures of Ulysses as they read the adaptation of Homer's poem by Ms. Anna Claybourne. A multidisciplinary approach - including English, Art and Craft and Drama classes - allowed the children to re-interpret Ulysses' stories with their own talent and imagination. Students and teachers alike, appreciated a poem far away in time and space, but so universally common for the feelings, the pleasure of discovery, the risk of any life's adventure.

Loving Gaze General Manager, Barbara Pepoli, while introducing the event said "curiosity, courage engagement help you to travel in reality" has been our schools' motto in 2015-2016, noting that wonder and curiosity are the starting point for any learning process. "Courage and engagement are essential to pursue our personal growth path and widen our horizons. Educating our pupils is at the core of our mission. We want to accompany their human and cultural growth, through the discovery of each aspect of their reality. We want them to experience first-hand, through each educational activity, how positive reality is, because it is given." SS Peter and Paul School is run by Loving Gaze an independent not-for-profit organisation, with 25 years of experience in Nigeria.
