SS. PETER & PAUL CRECHE, NURSERY & PRIMARY SCHOOL
Celebrates the End of the Year bringing on stage Ulysses' adventures

SS Peter & Paul Creche, Nursery and Primary School, celebrated yesterday, Tuesday 21st June, its students' talents bringing to the stage the Odyssey, an ancient Greek poem.

Since the beginning of 2015-2016 school year, all classes have been engaged in the Story Reading activity, led by their teachers. The main purpose of this activity has been to stimulate the children's imagination, a vivid talent at their age, which needs to be exercised and engaged.

Primary 6 Class enjoyed the adventures of Ulysses. They read the adaptation of Homer's poem by Ms Anna Claybourne, they learnt about the hero's courage, humanity and cleverness. A multidisciplinary approach - including English, Art & Craft and Drama classes - allowed the children to re-interpret Ulysses' stories with their own talent and imagination.

Students and teachers alike, appreciated a poem far away in time and space, but so universally common for the feelings, the pleasure of discovery, the risk of any life's adventure.

Ms Barbara Pepoli – Loving Gaze General Manager – introducing the event said “Curiosity, Courage Engagement help you to travel in reality” has been our schools' motto in 2015-2016. Wonder and curiosity are the starting point for any learning process. Courage and engagement are essential to pursue our personal growth path and widen our horizons. Educating our pupils is at the core of our mission. We want to accompany their human and cultural growth, through the discovery of each aspect of their reality. We want them to experience first hand, through each educational activity, how positive reality is, because it is given.”
