Kids Get a 'Loving Gaze' for Xmas

The day was filled with excitement as Loving Gaze, an independent not-for-profit organisation, with 25 years of experience in Nigeria gave out gifts during an Xmas party organised for over 360 children of SS Peter & Paul Crèche, Nursery & Primary School along with their families to usher in the Christmas celebration.

It was an opportunity for the students to bring forth their skills as they brought on stage the Nativity Drama, while showcasing their singing and dancing talents. Families and teachers had the chance to meet and discuss the upcoming and growing their talents. The school was founded to provide primary quality education to all the children in the community, beyond social or economical background barriers", said Loving Gaze General Manager, Ms. Barbara Pepoli.

She noted that starting from the next term all in the afternoon classes, supporting them with their homework and stimulating them with art, music, drama, sport, outdoor and indoor games.

"We were delighted to celebrate this year's Christmas party with the support of Kinder Joy by Ferrero. We share the same values for our schools developments.

SS Peter & Paul Crèche, Nursery & Primary School established in 1991, as a Catholic private school, is registered with the State Ministry of Education, under Eti-Osa Local Education District.

With support from eight international volunteer teachers from France,

Australia and Italy, the students have an international exposure and is now ranked 8th, among 20 competitive Catholic schools in Lagos State.

"We are extremely proud of this result because the majority of our students put a great effort in learning, studying children: joy, quality education and surprise for the beauty of the world. It is every child's right to receive care, attention and love.

We want them to be aware of their dignity and infinite value; this is our education through all our activities.

We want them to grow, discover the beauty around them and become responsible adults.

Our schools motto for this academic year is - What is essential can be seen only with an open heart - we hope that the our children will see the true spirit and joy of this Christmas celebration", she noted.
