It was a day of joy and excitement for students of SS Peter and Paul School and their families, as the school held a Christmas party at Elegushi in Lekki recently.

Students staged Nativity drama, as well as played, sang and danced at the event, which was organised by Loving Gaze and Kinder Joy by Ferrero.

Barbara Pepoli, General Manager, Loving Gaze had this to say of the event: “We are delighted to celebrate this year’s Christmas party with the support of Kinder Joy by Ferrero. We share the same values for the children, which include joy, quality education and surprise for the beauty of the world.

“It is every child’s right to receive care, attention and love. We want them to be aware of their dignity and infinite value. We want them to grow, discover the beauty around them and become responsible adults. Our school’s motto for this academic year is: 'What is essential can be seen only with an open heart.' We hope that the our children will see the true spirit and joy of this Christmas celebration.”

Speaking on what prompted the sponsorship of the party, Matteo Tranfaglia, Marketing Manager, Ferrero Central Africa says: “From the beginning, Kinder’s product line was developed to satisfy a universal need: Making chocolate a pure moment of joy and complicity between a mother and her child. A mother’s desire is to treat her children with something tasteful, being assured about the product’s quality.

“As children develop their talents at school, dealing with every day challenges, Kinder continues its quality mission, which began over 40 years ago, firmly convinced that a happy child today will be a better adult tomorrow. Caring for children’s joyful growth will help to make a better world. This is why we are very proud to sponsor this beautiful and joyful event, hosted by one of the top schools in Lagos.”
